kevingallagher: lets verify your youtube account, it's supposed to enable you for videos over 15 minutes, so maybe it will let us get the video kevingallagher: just need to send one of those cell code thingys me: I already did that yesterday me: problem is that I've "violated terms of service" on that account by posting recording of convo with exec at an intelligence contracting firm kevingallagher: aw shit, well it still shows you can "Increase Your Upload Limit" by verifying me: hmmm kevingallagher: lets try again or something kevingallagher: did anyone tape the broadcast? outlook is not good =( me: nope me: probably will have to do just do it next time I go on me: I did it again, try it kevingallagher: kk kevingallagher: well, they are holding your video hostage. totally rejected from retrieving for view or edit. it's dubious whether even they have a copy of it... sorry, i tried =/ possibly you could file a ticket bitching at them me: Thanks for trying, man kevingallagher: np kevingallagher: im bummed too cause i enjoy listening to you speak kevingallagher: im kind of curious if there are targeted restrictions on your account, so im gonna record something long and see if they give me the same bullshit
